Exclusive Fee Explanation:

- The exclusive fee applies to all forex currency pairs, cryptocurrencies, gold and silver products. Other products such as crude oil, indices, futures, and stocks do not support the addition of exclusive fees.
- The maximum increase for the exclusive fee on cent accounts is 10 USD.
- All additional implicit spread markups and their combinations support daily settlement. If a withdrawal is requested during the week, the system will process it collectively on Fridays.
- Interest-free accounts do not support implicit spread markups. Accounts opened via this type of link will, by default, be classified as commission-free and markup-free.
